“SHADOWS COME ALIVE - ALEXANDER THE GREAT AND THE CURSED SERPENT”

The show is based on the classic concept of shadow-puppet theatre, but, at the same time, the actors convey the characters from scrim to stage. Shadow play “merges” with the classical theatre as the actors pick the action up from where the shadows left off, continuously and seamlessly relaying the baton from one style to the other.

The Central City Library of Nafplio, in collaboration with the Association of Authors and Writers of Argolis, is organising a reading session of excerpts from selected books for adults and children, as selected villages of Argolis host the Mobile Library.

ANCIENT THEATRE OF ARGOS 21:00

“OUR ROOTS ARE LIKE THOSE OF THE OLIVE TREE...”

A show praising the Greek heritage that bridges all generations together and is a source of strength, faith, identity and meaning for everyone. A tribute to our customs that, like the roots of the olive tree, timelessly stay alive and intact, guardians of our cultural heritage, vigilant guards of our national consciousness, nurturing our steps into the future...
